v.

ARMANDO BUSTAMANTE

Defendant.

CR. No. 22-I-004

18 U.S.C. § 242

23-20029 JTF

INFORMATION

THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY CHARGES:

COUNT 1

On or about the 16th day of January, 2021, in the Western District of Tennessee, the Defendant,

ARMANDO BUSTAMANTE

then a Police Officer for the Memphis Police Department, while acting under color of law, willfully deprived M.L., an arrestee, of the right, secured and protected by the Constitution and laws of the United States, to be free from unreasonable seizures of the person by a person acting under color of law. Specifically, the defendant struck M.L. with his pistol, a dangerous weapon, and with his hands, without legal justification, resulting in bodily injury to M.L. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 242.
